Vegetarians would have us eat no meat. Some temperance people are opposed to beer. But without cattle are being raised, and beer is being brewed to a larger extent than ever before. The output of the Honolulu Brewery has tremendously increased. This is because the great intelligent working people know a pure beer is a good food.

NEXT MAIL FOR COAST.

The O. S. S. Alameda sails tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for San Francisco from the Oceanic wharf.

NEXT MAIL FROM COAST

The S. S. Nippon Maru will bring the next mail from San Francisco and may arrive this afternoon. Following the Nippon the next mail from the coast will be brought by the A. H. S. S. Nebraskan which sailed yesterday from San Francisco. She will arrive here March 26 with five day's later mail. She goes to Makaweli and Elele to load sugar for Salina Cruz.

SENATE COMMITTEE MET.

There were sessions of the Senate committee on Judiciary and yesterday afternoon to consider the automobile and hotel bills. The committee may decide to recommend the elimination of the anti-speed clause and retain the section relating to heedless driving. With the hotel bill, it is possible that there may be eliminated the clause limiting value and retained that providing for a lien upon the baggage by the hotelkeeper.

CONFLICTING CONSTITUTIONS.

Senator Beveridge is looking after the constitution of the future citizens. Senator Spooner seems to think the constitution of the United States is opposed to that.—Sioux City Tribune.

LIMIT THE BILLBOARD.

It is hoped the law limiting the height of skyscrapers may also be amended so as to include a provision to not permit billboards to be higher than an inch from the ground.—Kansas City Star.
